

LONDON MEETING: SPECIAL EVENT

THURSDAY 19 JANUARY 2012

On the evening of Thursday 19 January 2012 the Society will be holding its first London meeting at the new venue, the Royal Astronomical Society, Burlington House, Piccadilly London W1J 0BQ.

The aim of the evening, for which entrance will be free, is to introduce members to the new venue and to consider aspects of the Society's activities over its fifty-eight years as well as discussing plans for the future. Brief talks are to be given by a number of specialists, including David Thompson, David Penney, Matthew Read, Keith Scobie-Youngs, Jonathan Betts and Andrew King, and the evening promises to be interesting and informative.

As well as tea and coffee beforehand, there will be a reception with wine and light snacks afterwards in the Society's Library, and all are welcome.

Those wishing to attend should apply for tickets (free) from the Secretary.*
Tickets will be provided on a first come first served basis.
